

My name is Anna Lower, I was born and raised in California. I come from a family of six children. My parents moved to Lexington, Oklahoma in 1991. My daughter Nicole, and I moved with them. She is now married; her husband, Evan, is an employee at the City of Lexington. I have lived in Lexington with my spouse and three dogs for nine years. My favorite things consist of cooking and spending quality time with my family.

